Details

"The Great Jitters: Pudding Panic" is a quirky, tongue-in-cheek action puzzle game. The game was produced with our own multiplatform game engine Orkitec. The realtime 3D game is based on an original gameplay and setting for which the game has been acknowledged by the critics as "a puzzler without comparison" (pocketgamer.co.uk) or "a genre that has never been seen before" (Appgamer).

In Pudding Panic, the player leads an anxious blob of jelly through a spooky haunted house. Puzzle your way to the exit and scare back the monsters, before you quiver, shiver and faint from fear. Fight witches, skeletons and rusty knights with an arsenal of weapons and traps, test your courage in 48 suspenseful levels, and dive into four "beautiful 3D worlds" (appgefahren.de): the Black Forest, the Purple Mines, the Sleepy Graves and the Dark Castle.

The kunst-stoff team worked six months on the game, which has been called a "stunning piece of art" (appsafari.com) or "a must-play with incredible graphics, gameplay, and many enjoyable levels" (appadvice.com).

Lunch Box reviews

Four beautifully designed 3D worlds

4x12 levels (4-5 hours of gameplay)

World 1: Black Forest

In the creepy Black Forest, you will encounter knaggy trees, silently sneaking witches, and a pale full moon. Don't get scared by the icy mist waving through the woods and the blind darkness which is about to swallow you every moment....

World 1: Black Forest

World 2: Purple Mines

In the Purple Mines, beware of the rattling skeletons! Sharp stalaktites and stalagmites border your way, and deep there in the stony abyss, you can see into the eyeholes of petrified skulls...

World 2: Purple Mines

World 3: Sleepy Graves

In the Sleepy Graves, feel the humid atmosphere of a graveyard in a dark autumn night. See the tombstones of long-forgotten friends and feel yourself reminded of death and transience...

World 3: Sleepy Graves

World 4: Dark Castle

At first, the dark castle won't scare you so much. But then you'll be horrified by the torments of the people who seem to have lived here long before! Shiver by the sight of the paintings on the wall and the cages in the abyss...

World 4: Dark Castle

Monsters: Oak Witch

The witches sneak silently along the tracks, but will laugh mischievously when they meet you and scare you with their sticks.

Monsters: Skeletons

The skeletons are moving much faster than you do. So beware when one of them is behind you – their loud cries and rattling bones will scare the wits out of you!

Monsters: Armors

These are really tricky! They won't get scared by you so easily. You need the right strategies in your luggage to scare them off. Otherwise they will hit you badly with their morning stars or hammers.

Monsters: Rotten Heads

The Rotten Heads are real creeps. They walk with their teeth and shoot with maggots out of their eyes.

Monsters: Jack in the Box

Small blue boxes on the tracks... are they gift boxes? Pass by and an awful devil will jump out and scare the living daylights out of you!.

Monsters: Dragon

This fire-spitting tin dragon is squeaking and creaking as if he needed oil desperately. However, in order to defeat him and get out of the labyrinth, you must use your weapons carefully and strategically.

Gameplay: Manipulate the tracks

With these rail changers, you can alternate the track easily.

Gameplay: Manipulate the tracks

With the rail rotors, you can accomplish more challenging manoeuvres, especially when you use them while you (or a monster!) are right on an intersection.

Weapons: Viper Punch

Use your viper punch when you want to scare a monster right in front of you.

Weapons: Rat Racer

The Rat Racer is an aggressive wind-up rat. When activated, it races along the tracks and scares off the monsters from behind or from the front.

Weapons: Booster

The booster will get you out of tricky situations: it speeds you up when you need to escape.

Weapons: Shelter Bag

Sometimes it's better to duck one's head.
Use the shelter bag in order to not getting scared for a certain amount of time – and at the same time scare the monsters off with the monster picture on the bag!

Weapons: Valerian Drips

Thanks to Dr. Bava's Valerian drips: If you got scared too much, you can drive by the golden drips and thus have the chance to calm down and regain some courage energy.

Weapons: Jack Trap

In some levels, you will be able to put Jack in the Box traps on the rails yourself. The first monster who drives into it, will get scared.

Weapons: Kitty Bomb

If you put the sweet kitty on the rails, no-one will assume anything bad. However, the kitty is a bomb that will explode after a certain amount of time and destroy everything around it. Use the kitty in order to scare several monsters at the same time!

Gameplay: Puzzle Elements

Activate Bridges

React quickly

Play without weapons

Master Labyrinth Maps

Gameplay: Puzzle Elements

Steal keys from monsters

Master unusual dangers

Master Levels with almost no Tokens

Play against the clock

Learning curve

A very smooth learning curve and challenging variations in gameplay - including puzzle-solving, playing against the clock, unraveling labyrinths and winning treacherous races - were designed in order to keep the gameplay inspiring throughout the whole ride and for players of any level. The game surprises a lot and offers several hours of gameplay.

Video Teaser: Jobs in the Game Industry

Video game actors have a hard life: In the games they are acting in, they get smashed, squeezed, scared and often even killed! This series of three videos reveals the shocking working conditions of video game actor J. Jitters: Watch The Great Jitters trembling in front of his agent and having disturbing flashbacks of his last painful productions. Ouch!

And: Some people say you can discover a popular casual game in each video...
